2^D SESSION

H. RES. 394

To express the sense of the House that Congress has a constitutional obligation to conduct oversight of matters related to the operation of the Government.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 22, 1994

Mr. GEPHARDT (for himself and Mr. MICHEL) submitted the following resolution; which was considered under suspension of the rules and agreed to

RESOLUTION

To express the sense of the House that Congress has a constitutional obligation to conduct oversight of matters related to the operation of the Government.

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Rep-
2 resentatives that:

3 (a) Congress has a constitutional obligation to
4 conduct oversight of matters relating to the oper-
5 ations of the Government, including matters related
6 to any governmental investigations which may, from
7 time to time, be undertaken.

8 (b) The Speaker, majority and minority leaders
9 should meet to determine the appropriate timetable,

1 procedures, and forum for appropriate congressional
2 oversight, including hearings on all matters related
3 to “Madison Guaranty Savings and Loan Associa-
4 tion (‘MGS&L’), Whitewater Development Corpora-
5 tion and Capital Management Services Inc.
6 (‘CMS’)”.

7 (c) No witness called to testify at these hear-
8 ings shall be granted immunity under sections 6002
9 and 6005 of title 18, United States Code, over the 10 objection of Special Counsel Robert B. Fiske, Jr.

11 (d) The hearings should be structured and
12 sequenced in such a manner that in the judgment of 13 the leaders they would not interfere with the ongoing
14 investigation of Special Counsel Robert B. Fiske, Jr.
